

Welcome to the green and fireproof materials

LAMCOM

13 oz
Bioflex banner:

Made from biodegradable PVC. Contains no toxic materials. 80% of the content of Bioflex is derived from sources other than petroleum. It begins to degrade in the landfill within a few weeks, the PVC will vanish in 3 to 5 years. To degrade correctly, the banner must be printed with UV ink. All materials used by the company in the production of this packaging are completely recyclable (LLDPE).

Bioflex has passed fire testing for the NY MEA;NFPA 701 and the CA Fire Marshal Title 19 test.

Ultra board
"Gatorplast":

100% recyclable foam centered board. To be recycled, the gatorplast must be printed with UV ink.

ASTM E 84-91a Standard Test Method for Surface burning characteristics of building materials (NFPA 255, UBC 8-1, UL 723).

ACT II
fabric:

Made of polyester 100% post-consumption coming from recycled plastic bottles.

This product is fire resistant. If required, it can be offered in fireproof version.

* These data comes directly from the manufacturer.